Instructor/Assistant Professor of Dance

Campus: Ephraim

Review Date: May 5, 2019
Close Date: Open until filled
Desired Start Date: August 1, 2019

Job Status: Accepting Applications

Description:

Snow College invites applications for the tenure-track position of Assistant Professor of Dance with a special emphasis in Ballroom/Social Dance and interdisciplinary collaboration.

Qualifications:

- MA degree or equivalent, MFA degree preferred
- Knowledge of ballroom, social and folk dance styles
- Knowledge of ballet, hip-hop or other dance techniques
- Ability to collaborate with other disciplines
- Experience of directing a dance company
- Ability to provide administrative support to dance department
- Evidence of production or co-production of dance concerts

Major Responsibilities/Duties:

- Instructor of Ballroom, Latin, Social and Folk dance courses
- Instructor of interdisciplinary foundation courses in movement and other academic disciplines
- Artistic Director of Snow College Ballroom Company
- Producer or co-producer of two annual Snow College Dance concerts
- Recruitment of new students
- Provider of administrative support for the Snow College Dance department
- Ongoing movement research practice

Salary:

$50,280 per contract year

Work Hours:

Full-time

Special Instructions to Applicant:

Email completed application and required documents to jobs@snow.edu

Required Applicant Documents:

1. Cover Letter
2. Snow College Employment Application
3. Resume/Vita
4. Transcripts (Unofficial copies at this point)
5. Three current references with complete contact information

Optional Documents:

Samples of current artistic work (choreography and/or performance)