Lecturer in Dance
University of Kentucky
The Department of Theatre & Dance at the University of Kentucky seeks applicants for a full-time, Lecturer in Dance to begin August 2020. The successful candidate will teach Choreography, Senior Seminar, Introduction to Dance, Dance History, and Modern plus an additional technique such as: African, African Diaspora, Ballet, First Nations, Hip-Hop, Middle Eastern, South Asian, or Tap.

Additional responsibilities include choreographing for the Annual Dance Concert, serving as the Artistic Director of the Materialized Student Choreography Concert, and aid in recruitment for the Department of Theatre & Dance. Candidates must possess a Master of Fine Arts or terminal degree in field, a strong record of creative and/or scholarly activities, and a minimum of three years prior teaching experience. Candidate must be an effective collaborative and demonstrate strong interpersonal skills.

To apply, please visit the UK Jobs site here: http://ukjobs.uky.edu/postings/249219 When prompted in the employment system, please submit the following materials: comprehensive CV highlighting all teaching and dance experience, cover letter, statement about your commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion as they relate to your teaching and choreography (upload under specific request #1), and link(s) to three works showing dance choreography (upload under specific request #2).

Please also include the names and contact information for three references when prompted in the employment system. These references should be able to speak to the candidate’s teaching ability and/or technique. This information may be used to solicit reference letters within the employment system.

Review of applicants will begin on November 1st, 2019. The position will remain open until filled. For more information about the Department of Theatre & Dance, please visit our website: https://finearts.uky.edu/theatre-dance

The University of Kentucky is an Equal Opportunity Employer and encourages applications from veterans, individuals with disabilities, women, African Americans, and all minorities